

Why am I into internet
archiving?

Well... where I grew up...

- my connection was 1.5mbps on a good day, with ~200ms ping
- the internet was heavily censored (often unpredictably)
- Google something sketchy and your house goes offline for 30min

Having reliable access to content is a privilege that we often take for granted.